2011 Junior Grades Policy (Under 17 years)

INTRODUCTION

At the Judo Federation of Australia Inc. (JFA) Seminar in October 2009, a workshop was run focusing on the National Grades Policy. What came strongly out of that meeting was a direction to the JFA Inc. to update the existing junior grading syllabus, particularly the relegation of two (2) grades upon moving into the next age category.

This syllabus is a direct response to this request and also aims to bring the national junior syllabus in to line with international categories and developments.

The Oceania Judo Union (OJU) re-classified the older age categories for junior members by increasing the U/13 year divisions to 14 years and under, as well as introducing the Cadet divisions for 15 and 16 year old athletes. This has been adopted by the JFA Inc. necessitating an urgent rewriting of the National Junior Grades Syllabus.

This Junior Judo Grading Policy addresses the two significant changes.

Firstly, NO relegation of junior grade and secondly, alignment to Oceania Judo Union and the International Judo Federation age groups.

The introduction of this new policy will support the Judo Federation of Australia Inc. in aligning the tournament calendar and selection procedures for junior athletes participating in international events, especially as the International Judo Federation (IJF) has introduced the Cadet World Championships.

I encourage all state and territory executive officers, as well as member club coaches to support this policy as it provides our junior members clear, transparent and current guidelines to grade as well as be eligible for easier entry to international judo events in the future.

JUNIOR GRADES ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible to sit for a grade, all junior members need to be registered members of the JFA Inc. via their member state or territory.

The awarded grade is not recognised unless the member is JFA Inc. registered and a JFA Inc. Kyu Grade Certificate with identifying number issued and recorded for reference, especially for competition at club, state/territory and national level participation.

WHO CAN GRADE JUNIOR MEMBERS

The JFA Inc. recognises that the strength of the organisation rests with the quality and development of member clubs.

As such, registered clubs together with registered senior coaches/members at the minimum rank of Shodan (1st dan), have the appropriate qualification and experience to grade at the junior Kyu grade level on the proviso that they adhere to the policy and processes outlined in this document as well as maintaining their membership and coaching qualifications.

JUNIOR GRADES POLICY FRAMEWORK

An overview in point form is listed below:

1. All new beginning registered junior JFA Inc. members start with a white belt.
2. Current junior member grades are to be assessed and awarded the relevant grade by club coaches as set out in the criteria of this policy. A recommended conversion table is included for reference.
3. It is expected that basic Judo etiquette, simple terminology, tai – sabaki, and ukemi is demonstrated at each grade level.
4. Grades are assessed and attained by demonstrating the set criteria for each grade over the recommended time frames, namely 2 grades per year.
5. The framework introduces 20 belts to achieve, over the time as a junior, without any relegation of grade.
6. It is expected that 2 new throws be introduced for each grade level, covering the traditional 40 throw Go Kyo by Cadet Level.
7. The framework maintains the traditional Kyu grade belt colours but introduces half colour belts and a black tip grade between each of the traditional Kyu grades. For example, the progression from White belt is first, the White-Yellow grade, followed by the White-Yellow/Black Tip grade before progressing to Orange belt.
8. New beginner junior members start at the beginning and progress as able but within these guidelines. However, some beginning members, who are older, may be assessed by coaches to start at varying points of the grading syllabus. It is expected that coaches will use their experience and common sense as we transition in to this new grading system. A recommended Junior Kyu grade conversion table is included to support coaches.
9. The introduction of Kata complements the development of Kata Competition at the National level and the skill set required for possible Shodan grading at an earlier age.
10. The policy recognises that strangles be introduced prior to junior members entering into Cadet Shiai where strangles are permitted.

11. The policy recognises that arm locks be introduced prior to juniors progressing into senior training & competition where arm locks are permitted.
12. Under this policy Cadets maintain their grade when they transfer in to senior divisions. The only exceptions to this are Cadet half coloured belts and black tip grades, who will transfer to the lower Kyu grade. For example, a Cadet blue/brown will progress to the senior ranks as a blue belt.
13. The National Grades Commission will determine eligibility and awarding of Shodan grades. There will be an expectation that members have knowledge and experience of shime and kansetsu waza.
14. The awarding of junior grades will include the belt colour and junior category on the authorised JFA Inc. certificate, for example, Mon Yellow or Senior Girls Blue/Brown.
15. Certificates are available for purchase from the JFA Inc. by registered states, and territories. A register will be maintained for JFA Inc. and member records.
16. Cadets can only be considered for a Sho Dan grade where contest points have been gained through Junior Mens, Womens, Senior competitions.
17. Clubs/coaches will be able to purchase belts direct from JFA Inc.

The progression of junior grades are outlined on the following page.
